JAMIE HAGIYA

Professional Basketball Player & Coach

Coach Hagiya grew up playing basketball in Asian leagues and local tournaments.

She was a prep standout at South High School in Torrance where she won three consecutive Ocean League championships and was named the Ocean League MVP three times.

Coach Hagiya played collegiate basketball for USC, where she was a two time captain and posted the top assist/turnover ratio in the Pac-10 as a junior.

Upon leaving USC, she was 4th all time in career assists and 2nd all time in career 3 pointers. She led her team to two NCAA appearances, each year making it to the second round.

Jamie recently finished her second year of professional basketball in Thessaloniki, Greece.

GOALS

Purpose:

To develop and improve individual basketball skills in a hard-working yet fun environment from former top High School and College athletes.

To develop both basic and advanced skills such as shooting, passing, ball handling, and footwork, through individual and group instruction with time allotted for practice, drills, and games.

Daily competition will allow campers to implement the skills they have learned.

All campers are grouped by age and ability. The camp will also feature fundamental skill stations, games and contests.

Please feel free to circulate this application to interested parents. Thank you!
